Michael Koller joins Sanitas board of directors

Sanitas is strengthening its board of directors with the addition of proven insurance expert Michael Koller. With six members, the Sanitas board of directors is complete once again.

At an extraordinary general meeting, the Sanitas health insurance foundation elected Michael Koller to the board of directors of Sanitas Beteiligungen AG. Michael Koller holds a doctorate in mathematics from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH) in Zurich. He has extensive knowledge in the field of insurance, which he is now bringing to bear on the board of directors in order to broaden its expertise and strengthen corporate governance.

He has worked in national and international insurance and reinsurance companies for over a quarter of a century, having held positions at Swiss Life, Swiss Re, Aviva and, for the last eight years, at Prudential plc in London. At these companies Michael Koller worked either as an actuary or in risk management. In addition to his work in the insurance industry, he has been teaching insurance mathematics at ETH Zurich since 1995, where he has been a full professor since 2004. Michael Koller is married and has two daughters.

Ueli Dietiker, chairman of the board of directors, welcomes the new member: «Michael Koller is an excellent insurance expert with a wealth of experience. His in-depth knowledge of the insurance industry, broad expertise and many years of experience are real assets for the Sanitas board of directors.»

With his election to the board of directors of Sanitas Beteiligungen AG (holding), Koller also joins the board of trustees of the Sanitas health insurance foundation.
